

Taro Kamitani -Tiara designer- Profile

Japanese Tiara Designer Taro Kamitani

Made the first tiara for the wedding of himself, for his beloved wife. Afterward, he put more than 100 brides's dreams into shape by this tiara. 「Designing women's dream」 is his motto and his ingenious way of creating tiara has spread around through word of mouth. And now, it is supported strongly by celebrities and brides all over the world.

In 2007, he won the New York ADC Annual Awards (Hybrid) at the youngest age. In 2010, he brought out a new tiara design which reflected the image of Lady Gaga and Penélope Cruz on Wedding Mode magazine. Works including ready-made tiara brand 『TARO KAMITANI』, he keeps producing actively at the moment.
